Idlewood Employes Appear in Court for Ylolating Sunday Laws.

Every proprietor or clerk working in the places at Idlewood which viotated the Sunday law was fined 12 in Police Court yesterday merning. All were told that this action would be taken every time they were brought up on this charge, and it was proved against them.

The men working inside the grounds appeated the cases through Mr. Wyndham Meredith, attorney for the Idlewood mangaement, but those who hald open-shop on the outside paid their fines. In some instances every member of the family living at the place was assessed $2. Where only one man is employed it is understood that he will keep open every Sunday with the weekly trip to Police Court for the payment of a $2 fine.
